Notes to Proxy Form:

1. As shareholder of the Company you are entitled to appoint a proxy to attend, speak and vote at the Meeting. You can only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these notes.
2. A proxy does not need to be a shareholder of the Company but must attend the Meeting to represent you.
3. To appoint as your proxy a person other than the Chairman of the Meeting, insert his/her full name in the box on page 1. If you sign and return this Proxy Form without inserting any name in the box, the Chairman of the Meeting will be deemed to be your proxy. If any person other than the Chairman is appointed as your proxy, you are responsible to ensure his/her presence at the Meeting and be aware of your voting intentions. If you wish your proxy to speak/make any comments on your behalf, you will need to appoint any person other than the Chairman and give them the relevant instructions directly.
4. If the Proxy Form is returned without any indication on exercising voting rights on a particular matter, the proxy will exercise his/her discretion to vote in respect of any matter put before the Meeting.
5. To be effective the instrument appointing a proxy must be completed, signed and deposited at the registered office of the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting.
6. In the case of a shareholder being a Company, the Proxy Form must be executed under its common seal or signed by an officer of the company or an attorney for the Company. Any power of attorney or other authority under which the Proxy Form is signed (or a duly certified copy of such power or authority) must be included with the Proxy Form.
7. If you submit more than one valid proxy appointment, the appointment received last before the latest time for the receipt of proxies will take precedence.
8. Appointing a proxy does not preclude you from attending the Meeting and voting in person. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the Meeting in person, your proxy appointment will automatically be terminated.
9. Except as provided above, shareholders who have general queries about the Meeting should email to the Company at sarayaholdings@eaglehills.com.
